Happy new year, Salt Lake County!

This new year brings some new faces to the following elected positions and we are excited to begin working with them! Learn more about each of the officials below.

Lannie Chapman

Salt Lake County Clerk

Lannie Chapman has served as the Chief Deputy under Salt Lake County Clerk, Sherrie Swensen, for the last 3 years after previously serving as the Salt Lake County Deputy District Attorney. Growing up in Flint, Michigan, Lannie had a firsthand look at what the disconnect between local government and the community can look like during the clean water crisis. Because of that impact on her hometown, she is committed to ensuring that every voter in Salt Lake County knows how their public officials can support and protect their fundamental rights.

Suzanne Harrison
Salt Lake County Council

Suzanne Harrison represented the Sandy and Draper area in the Utah House of Representatives from 2019-2022. She graduated from Stanford University and completed medical school at the University of Utah. She completed her residency at Harvard Medical School and works as a physician anesthesiologist at Riverton Hospital. In her spare time she tries to keep up with her husband and three kids on the local mountain bike trails and in playing pickle ball.

Sheldon Stewart
Salt Lake County Council

Sheldon Stewart has an extensive educational background including an Associates of Science Degree in Environmental Science, an Associates of Science in Business Management, a Bachelors of Science in Finance from the University of Utah, and an MBA in Global Management. Sheldon and his wife Heather have been married for over 26 years. Together they have 3 wonderful children who are all married and they are expecting their first grandchild in June.

In addition to the newly elected officials above, we are pleased to continue working with the following officials who maintained their current appointments during this latest election cycle.
