Welcome from Jim Bradley

Sheriff Rosie Rivera motioned to approve the minutes, DA Sim Gill seconded the motion.

00:01 DA Sim Gill Introduces the Diversion Piolet Program

DA Sim Gill discuss the four stages of the model (prefile, post filing, post filing adjudication, post filing convictions). Also referred to as CPIP (County Prefile Intervention Program).

03:44 DA Sim Gill and Todd Olsen Discuss design and current data

Todd went into details about screening and referral process, phases, and current short term/initial results. As well as answer questions from those around the room.

38:27 Tucker Samuelsen updated CJAC on the DOJ Justice Grant

Tucker discussed the good news on being awarded 2 million dollars from BJA for federal grants for Magna. This funding will support nonprofits, an anti-gang program and more. Funding for Midvale was not awarded DOJ funding, but will be receiving other support from our office, and DHHS.

42:35 CJI/CJAC Workgroup Updates

-Jake Smith gave updates for the Expungement workgroup, cleaning up verbiage in a large bill. He also discussed the success from the online toolkit.

-Nick Mecham gave updates on the Government ID workgroup, they are in discussion of utilizing mobile ID with Senator Lincoln Fillmore and Wayne Niederhauser.

-Chief Matt Dumont and John Krantz gave updates on the Legal Rights and Safety Workgroup. They have been collecting data on the overlap of homeless and jail population, in order to make policy recommendations. Questions were addressed around the room.

59:57 Tucker Samuelsen updated group on Jail Release Time Workgroup

Meeting is officially scheduled for next week 10/18/2022 from 2 to 3 pm. Mayor Wilson brought up the idea of creating a repeat offender workgroup, it was decided to wait until after the trip to Miami to review one of their criminal justice models.

1:01:43 Member Updates

1:01:50 Chief Matt Dumont discussed the increasing jail population. As well as bringing back contract-based groups that provided a variety of services to those in the jail. They are also taking precautions due to COVID of bringing large groups of people in at one time.

1:08:17 Karen Crompton gave an update on the state Opioid settlement, and what the funds may potentially be used for. Discussing options with the jail for Medicaid assisted treatment program for substance use.

1:09:05 Dave Alvord asked for input on the possibility that there is a shortage of judges. Input was given from around the room, and there may not be a need for more judges.

1:16:59 Meeting Adjourned
